SIDE BET IS POSTED FOR EGAN-THOMAS BOUT

Everything in regards to the money question of the Egan-Thomas bout which will be held at the Maryland Athletic and Social Club, of Annapolis, Md., on next Wednesday night, is settled, as both fighters last night posted additional money, which binds the match.

... of an athletic entertainment which is to be held in this city on next Tuesday night Manager La Fontaine, of the Annapolis Club, changed the date of the battle at a meeting of the principals last night. The bout has been shifted until Wednesday night and both boys were anxious to allow this agreement as it gave them one more day in which to train.

Kid Egan is busy at work in conditioning himself for this battle, as he believes that he has all to lose and nothing to gain in a victory over Thomas, while on the other hand should Thomas win from the tough little feather-weight he will be recognized as one of the best boys in this class in this section.

Now that everything but the naming of the referee has been settled for the main battle, Matchmaker Joe Freeman is earnestly working on obtaining two good boys for the semi-windup, while he is also taking his time in making a choiced selection for the battles in the preliminaries and battle royal.

Yale and Penn Fights.

Philadelphia, April 20.—The Yale and Penn fights finished heavy work today for the annual race on the Schuylkill Saturday afternoon. Tomorrow the crews get only enough practice to keep muscles limber. Dopesters who have witnessed the Yale eight under action predict the Quakers will be defeated.

hit by a pitched ball, but not in his crumpled shoulder.

Band Plays Lively Music.

There were quite a number of New York players present besides Frank Baker and Lee Magee, but most of them were kept so busy chasing the Nationals' hits that the crowd did not get a good chance to identify them.

There was a band that played at every opportunity offered, and there were plenty of peanut boys. In short, there was everything essential to an opening day, even including the weather, which was so fine as to discourage attempts at description.

Most of the crowd was there before 2 o'clock, but the real fun did not start until President and Mrs. Wilson, with John H. Wilson, the President's cousin, and Mrs. W. H. Bolling, Mrs. Wilson's mother, were escorted to the Presidential box by back attendants and an entourage of Secret Service men. The President was greeted with "The Star-Spangled Banner" by the band, and then things started.

Mr. Wilson threw a ball, bearing his signature, to Umpire Connelly, who promptly pocketed the treasured souvenir. Umpire Connelly then tossed a new ball to Walter Johnson, shouted "Play," and the Washington season of 1916 was on with a flourish.

It was not long before the law-makers at the Capitol if the two branches of Congress had called an adjournment or not, as easily more than half were present. As early as 8 o'clock yesterday morning the fans for the 50-cent bleachers began to fall in line, while the first person to appear at the stand camped on an cracker box shortly after daybreak this morning. The first fan to enter the 50-cent stand was George F. Bonta, 629 Tenth street northeast, while Louis McKenna, a bookkeeper, of 44 Clifford place northwest, was the first in line at the jury box stand.

The District Commissioners and Maj. Pullman, superintendent of police, were the guests of the Washington Chamber of Commerce at American League Park yesterday. They were entertained by F. T. Moran, president of the chamber. Other guests in the box were W. T. Gallier, Capt. James F. Oyster, S. S. Matison, C. I. Crissey and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grant.

Members of the chamber who attended the opening game in a body were: Geo. Lee, H. C. Hower, W. F. Roberts, E. H. Neumeyer, S. T. Cameron, J. J. Leary, W. W. Spaid, Dr. John Crayke Simpson, Hon. Chas. BOWLERS DIVIDE HONORS IN MATCHES

The Hoboken and Washington teams which took part in the doubles and singles, ducks and tens, at the special night held by the A. C. B. A. tournament company divided the honors, the visitors taking the team honors while the local bowlers clipped the honors for the smaller pins.

After the two matches "Count von Getz" gave the large crowd on hand a fine exhibition of fancy shots with both small and big balls and went so far as to teach Harry Krause one of the hardest tricks of his string. The scores:

TIGERS ARE BEATEN BY MARYLAND AGGIES

College Park Farmers Romp in with Closely Fought Game by 2 to 1 Score.

College Park, Md., April 20.—Derrick, with his third hit, a ringing single to center, drove Knobe across the plate in the ninth inning of the Maryland Aggie-Princeton game here this afternoon with the run that enabled the farmers to humble the Tigers 2 to 1, in one of the most exciting and fastest games ever staged on College Field.

With their line-up reconstructed considerably the Aggies from the outset displayed marked reversal of form over other performances this year in every respect. They hit better, fielded more cleanly, threw more accurately and above all showed better judgment than has characterized their play this season. Score:

APPOINT COLLINS AS CAPTAIN OF WHITE SOX

Chicago, April 20.—Manager Clarence Rowland, of the local American League baseball team, last night announced the appointment of Second Baseman Eddie Collins as captain of the White Sox. Collins will act in his new capacity in the game with Detroit today.

PRESIDENT WILSON MEETS HARVARD BOYS

President Wilson yesterday wished an old college enemy—Harvard—a great deal of success. He shook hands with each member of the Harvard baseball team. The varsity boys were escorted to the White House by William Dearden, secretary of Representative Winslow, of Massachusetts. Representative Winslow was captain of the Harvard team in 1885. "I wish you many victories—but none away from Princeton," the President was quoted as saying.

COLUMBIA PREPARING FOR HARVARD GAME

New York, April 20.—The unbeaten Columbia nine, which has recently defeated Dartmouth, Yale and Colgate in a row, will play four games in the next seven days. This afternoon Manhattan will be met on South Field. Saturday Harvard will arrive; Monday, Union, and on Wednesday next week the Blue and White will play Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. Coach Andy Coakley will send Eddie Shea, third and most temperamental of his Three Musketeers of Smith, Beck and Shea, against the Manhattanites today. Although Shea is suffering from an arm that has not yet entirely responded to treatment, Coakley is saving big George Smith for Harvard.

War Department Wins. In a closely contested game yesterday afternoon, the War Department defeated the Yale team by the score of 4 to 5. The batting of Elsie and Anderson, of the War Department, and Duet, of the War Department, featured.
